

Task: Which Job Do I Accept?

Chapter 1

Two local sports stores have "Help Wanted" signs in their windows. Each store is looking to hire 1 or 2 people for full-time sales positions.

Since you are not really dressed for the job, you decide to bring a résumé and apply in person at both stores the next day.

A few days later, you receive a phone call from each store asking you to come in for an interview.

Over the phone, you are told that one of the stores pays an hourly wage. The other store pays a combination of general minimum wage plus a percent commission on all sales. Both stores insist that employees wear a uniform.

1. Write 3 questions that you want to make sure to ask during your interviews.
 - a) _____
 - b) _____
 - c) _____

2. What calculations might you make before deciding which job is more attractive?

3. What other factors, besides amount of pay, are important to you when choosing a job?

